You can order as a registered user or as a guest. You need an email address to place an order, and you may need to set your browser to accept both cookies and pop-ups in order to be able to use all the functionalities of the Website, which includes adding products to your shopping cart and submitting your order.

To place an order you must be at least 16 years old, or older if that is required under applicable law to enter into agreement with Calvin Klein, and you must be a consumer - not a reseller.

Ordering

The products offered on the Website represent an offer to purchase products from Calvin Klein Europe BV ("Calvin Klein") based on the data provided on the Website.

All prices indicated are EUR amounts and include value added tax. Orders and deliveries are possible only within Latvia. If Calvin Klein is not able to execute an order, Calvin Klein will inform you as quickly as possible. Orders are accepted only in quantities usual for households. For more information about ordering, please check Order Information.

When you submit an order, we will send you an email acknowledging receipt of your order ("Order Confirmation"). This does not mean that we have accepted your order. Our acceptance of the order takes place when the products are shipped to you – we will send you an email confirming that the products have been shipped ("Shipping Confirmation").

At this point a contract, containing these General Terms and Conditions, comes into existence and is binding on you and us (the "Contract").

Products on the Website are generally in stock and ready to be sent. Any sizes that are out of stock are marked as unavailable. We may have stock issues when customers order products at the same time. When we are unable to ship an item already ordered, we may cancel or reject that part of your order and you will be reimbursed or not charged accordingly. We work hard to keep our stock levels as accurate as possible. Occasionally, errors may occur. Our online collection is regularly replenished so it's worth checking back with us regularly. Alternatively, if the products you are looking for are sold out, you may wish to check availability with your Calvin Klein store through our Store Locator.

If you have placed an order in error, or would like to cancel an order before it is delivered, please immediately call Calvin Klein's customer service at 00800-74636499, 31702090410 Mon - Sat: 09:00 - 22:00 (standard rates, prices per mobile may vary) or e-mail Calvin Klein at: service.eu@calvinklein.com. Data check

During the payment process Calvin Klein may perform credit checks. Based on the outcome of those checks Calvin Klein may change, adjust or decline an order and/or the selected payment method. In most cases Calvin Klein will offer you the option to select a different payment method. Our customer service team will not be informed of the outcome of credit checks.

Your total price

The total price specified in the final checkout screen includes tax and shipping costs. This price will be recorded in the Order Confirmation. If paying by credit card, the total amount for your entire order will be reflected on your bank statement.

Price changes

The prices of the products will be as displayed on the Website. Prices may change from time to time, but changes will not affect any order which we have confirmed in the Order Confirmation.

Delivery

As a rule, delivery time is 2 to 5 working days after shipping the order. See our delivery information for more details.

If the delivered products have obvious material or production defects, including damage caused by transport, please notify us of such defects immediately by email or phone. Not doing so will not affect your legal rights.

You are responsible for the products following delivery of the products to the address you gave us. The products remain the property of Calvin Klein until payment is made in full.

Return and cancellation of orders

Your right to cancel

Your online order may be returned within 60 days of receipt without having to give any reason or to inform us.

If you cancel your order, we will reimburse you all payments received from you, including the costs of standard delivery and administration fees (if applicable), without undue delay and in any event not later than 14 days from the day on which we are informed about your decision to return the products. We may however withhold reimbursement until we have received the products back or until you have supplied evidence of having sent back the products, whichever is the earliest. The following products may not be returned: underwear, swimwear, gift cards, perfumes and make-up (unless in original sealed wrapping).

Returns are subject to a €15.95 return fee, which will be deducted from the refund amount.

How to exercise your right to cancel

To exercise your cancellation right, you need to (i) inform us of your intention to return the product(s) following the instructions below; and (ii) physically return such product(s) to us within the aforementioned 60 days period.

You can inform us in the following ways:

1. Use our model return form, which is available below (see Annex 1) or the form we have provided with the products and/or in the Order Confirmation; or
2. Send us an email at service.eu@calvinklein.com. Please provide your name, home address, details of the order and, where available, your phone number and email address.

How to return

If available in your country, you can also return your items in selected Calvin Klein stores. Please see our return information for more information.

Returned products must be returned in the state in which you received them: the returned products must be complete, unworn, unwashed and have all the product labels and tags intact, and must not be used in any other way than what is reasonably necessary to decide if you want to keep the product(s). If you do not comply with the foregoing and the value of the product diminishes as a consequence thereof, we can hold you liable for such diminished value.

Please make sure that you do not have returns from multiple orders in one parcel to ensure that you get your refund as quickly as possible.

Returning defective products

You may return products delivered to you that are defective, misdescribed or otherwise not in conformity with your order. You can do so within 6 months after you notice the defect. In the event your claim is justified, the purchase price and the shipping costs will be refunded. For practical information on how to return, see our return information.

We also remind you that under applicable law, we are responsible for providing products that are in conformity with the Contract. If it becomes apparent within six years that the products do not conform with the Contract you have several legal rights. You may be entitled to some money back or to a repair or replacement of the product in question. The foregoing does not limit your legal rights in any way.

In addition, please be reminded of the existence of a legal guarantee of conformity for products under Section 13 of the Sales of Goods Act 1979.

No exchange

Calvin Klein does not have an exchange service. You can return any product that you are not fully satisfied with and receive a refund. If you would like another product, color or size, please place a new order.

Refunds

Once your returned products have been checked and inspected by Calvin Klein you will receive a refund e-mail notification, if a refund will be made. Your refund will be paid to the same card or account that was used to place the order without undue delay.

Refunds usually take up to 8-10 working days to appear on your statement. The length of time depends solely on your card company's policies. You can always check your refund status on your online account or by contacting your card issuer.

In order to get a full refund it is important that we receive the returned products in the state in which you received them: the returned products must be complete, unworn, unwashed and have all the product labels and tags intact and must not be used in any other way than what is reasonably necessary to decide if you want to keep the product(s).
