

Terms and conditions for access to the taxi area at Keflavík Airport (KEF)

1. These terms and conditions apply to the use of the designated taxi area by KEF and the accompanying facilities.

1.1. Reference is made to the general terms of KEF Parking in Keflavík Airport and they apply unless otherwise stated in these present terms.

1.2. The terms and conditions apply for the use of a designated taxi area and other facilities by Keflavík Airport, that are specifically meant for taxi driving and taxi drivers.

1.3. The purpose of these terms and conditions is to ensure safety, quality, clear presentation of the services, and the positive experience of customers, as well as guaranteeing a safe and healthy working environment for drivers.

2. User

2.1 User according to these terms and conditions is a party that holds a licence from the Icelandic Transport Agency for taxi driving, according to the provisions of Act No. 120/2022 on Taxi Driving and has gained access to a taxi area by Keflavík Airport.

2.2. Access applications are available on the Keflavík Airport website. The party must be current with Isavia, hold a valid licence from the Icelandic Transport Agency, cf. the above, and in other respect fulfil the requirements provided for in applicable law, regulations, and rules of Isavia, along with these present terms.

3. Obligations of Isavia

3.1 Isavia is an operator of facilities by Keflavík Airport and provides access and monitors the traffic of users into the area.

3.2 Isavia provides the user with access to a designated taxi against the payment of an access fee according to the price list issued by Isavia, at any given time. The current price list can be found at KEF Parking and on the Keflavik Airport website, www.kefairport.is.

4. Obligations of the user

4.1. The user shall comply with the rules in effect at Keflavík Airport and the surrounding area, as set by Isavia. The user shall, furthermore, ensure that their operation does not in any way denigrate the reputation of the airport or its operation.

4.2. The user undertakes to pay a fee for the access in accordance with the effective schedule of charges, at any given time, with a credit card through their account on Autopay.io.

4.3. Each trip is individually paid, and payment is submitted when exiting the area.

4.4. If a user drives through a gate without having sufficient funds on their credit cards, Isavia reserves the right to charge a default payment, according to the price list, at any given time.

4.5. Should the user fail to fulfil their obligations cf. these present terms, Isavia has the right to temporarily close their access to the taxi area, for up to 4 weeks. Repeated or serious offence can result in the access being permanently cancelled.

4.6. The user is unauthorised to deny services to customers, if they are located within the designated taxi area of Keflavík Airport, unless the reason is on the basis of objective views. It is completely forbidden to deny services on the basis of the passenger's destination and offence of this nature is subject to termination of access, without warning.

4.7. The user is prohibited from stopping or leaving a vehicle within the area for longer than 6 hours at time. After 6 hours, Isavia reserves the right to charge a fee according to the price list in effect by the airport and/or, as appropriate, remove the vehicle at the owner's expense.

4.8. It is prohibited to pick up passengers in places other than the designated taxi area. Penalties for wrongful parking may occur. For further information, see the website of Suðurnes Parking Service <http://www.bss.is/stodubrotsgjald>

4.9. Advertisements in and by KEF are prohibited except with the permission of Isavia ohf. cf. Article 6 of Isavia's location rules.

4.10. The price list of taxi services offered without prior bookings shall be visible to customers, in both Icelandic and English, from the curb, in the rear window of the vehicle, on the passenger side, and thus in plain view before the passenger enters the vehicle. It shall list, at minimum, the starting fee, kilometre fee, minute fee, and the estimated fee for driving into downtown Reykjavík. Inside the taxi the customer shall have clear access to a concise and easy-to-read price list for all services offered.

4.11. The holder of the access licence is always responsible for the taxi vehicle and the drivers of the vehicle in question. Violations of the rules can lead to the cancellation of the access to the taxi area, irrespective of whether the owner of the vehicle had a part in the offence or not. The user is prohibited from sending a vehicle into the area if it is being driven by another driver than owner, if the access of the respective driver has been revoked. This is subject to exclusion from the area for 4 weeks.

4.12 If a user is found violating traffic laws in the area around Keflavík Airport, they may be banned from accessing the taxi zone for 4 weeks.

4.13 The user must first drive through the taxi waiting area before entering the main taxi zone. Forming a line in front of the entrance gate to the taxi zone is prohibited. Such violations may result in a 2-week expulsion from the area.
