Trend TALK

“This issue is focused on revisiting some of our favourite wallpapers over the past few launches, and even more importantly yours!”

Now half way through the year it's easy to let weeks pass by without leaving time to reflect and enjoy past successes. Many of us are guilty of working at such speed we forget to celebrate our triumphs before moving onto the next.

That's why this issue is focused on revisiting some of our favourite wallpapers over the past few launches, and even more importantly yours! We are sharing some of our highest rated products by you, our lovely customers, using Graham & Brown products to curate your own loving homes.

We've accomplished a lot in the past 6 months with new product launches that you have loved, including Fabrics, Wallpapers, and the iconic TATE collection of Murals that have received international press and declared as one of the new modern status symbols according to Tatler. Order your sample pack today!

We also celebrate Pride this month with a celebration of colour. We are so proud to work with many amazingly talented individuals in the LGBTQIA+ community both internally within our business and externally through collaborations and partnerships, and will continue to do so all year round. We're proud to support and raise awareness for such an important movement.

I'd also like to take a moment to thank you, our amazingly talented customers. Your reviews are so important to us, and we LOVE seeing our lovingly made products in your homes. So if you've recently completed a project with some of our ranges please leave a review or tag us on your favourite social platform for your chance to be featured in next month's issue.

'Crazy and Cool'

'Love this wallpaper, it's crazy and cool. I even put it on the ceiling such fun to look at. It's also a really good quality paper, one of the easiest papers I have ever hung!'

'Beautifully detailed'

'So happy with this mural, has really finished off my kitchen and given it some personality. I chose the fabric effect version and the quality is amazing and perfect for hiding imperfections on the wall. Would highly recommend.
